This table contains double counting, i.e. if two internal participants attended the same 60min meeting with two participating investors it will be logged here as four interactions (two interactions for each internal participant) and 120m time spent (60min for each internal participant). This means the sum of this table will be most likely higher than the summary figure. However, it correctly displays the interactions/time spent per internal participant. If an internal participant has a 100% here, it means she participated in every single investor interaction during the period. Also, if total internal participants attended e.g. 150% of interactions/time spent it means that on average 1.5 internal participants attended each meeting.
